MEA/NEA Names Kent McAllister to Serve as CIO

ATLANTA – April 12, 2011 - Medical Electronic Attachment/National Electronic Attachment (MEA / NEA) today announced that Kent McAllister has been named to serve as the company's Chief Information Officer.

McAllister will provide leadership and direction to MEA/NEA's healthcare solutions. He will lead development of instrumental technology strategies that support the ongoing vision and mission of MEA/NEA.

McAllister comes to MEA/NEA with more than 20 years experience in healthcare information technology. He served as VP of Client Solutions with Sage Healthcare where he led the professional services organization through an impressive 20% capacity expansion. Prior to Sage, McAllister founded his own healthcare IT company called Mavicor, and has also spent his career in a range of healthcare general management, operations, sales and marketing positions.

"We are fortunate to have such a seasoned CIO join the MEA/NEA team," said Lindy Benton, CEO of MEA/NEA. "Kent is ideally suited to drive the implementation of our technology strategy. His leadership and vision will be invaluable as we advance our marketplace position.
